The Arts

The Hood Museum of Art

The Hood Museum of Art is one of the oldest and largest college museums in the country. With major collections of American paintings, sculpture and drawings, ancient and Asian art, art from African, Oceanic and New World cultures, European, modern and contemporary art, the Hood is the only museum of its kind in the region. One of its greatest treasures is the dramatic “Epic of American Civilization,” a mural by Mexican artist José Clemente Orozco covering 1,200 square feet of wall space in Baker-Berry Library Reserve Corridor. The Hood offers an extensive array of community programs, including Family Days designed for children ages 6-12, ArtVentures for children ages 8 and older, workshops and Summer Institutes that help local teachers integrate the visual arts into the curriculum and numerous programs for schools as well as public tours, lectures, gallery talks and receptions. www.hoodmuseum.dartmouth.edu, 603-646-2808

The Hopkins Center for the Arts

The Hopkins Center for the Arts presents an extensive array of community programs, including Family Days designed for children ages 6-12, ArtVentures for children ages 8 and older, workshops and Summer Institutes that help local teachers integrate the visual arts into the curriculum and numerous programs for schools as well as public tours, lectures, gallery talks and receptions. www.hoodmuseum.dartmouth.edu, 603-646-2808

Dartmouth abounds with exciting opportunities to expand intellectual horizons, enjoy the arts, cheer for the Big Green athletic teams and enjoy the natural beauty of the region. This brochure outlines a range of activities that we are pleased to share with you, our neighbors, and describes how you can stay informed about other events and offerings on and off campus. I hope that you will join us as often as possible to share the dynamic cultural, intellectual and recreational resources Dartmouth has to offer and join us in exploring and celebrating the unique natural environment we are privileged to share.
