A Winter Festival of sorts, featuring ski competitions at the Dartmouth Skiway and the Oak Hill Nordic Ski Trails. Carnival also includes a town-sponsored party on Occom Pond (at the end of Rope Ferry Road) with special activities for families and area residents.

More information on Winter Carnival can be found on the www.dartmouth.edu/~carnival website.

Schedule of Carnival Ski Events

February 9, 2007

Alpine Events (at Dartmouth Skiway)
- 10:30 a.m. Women’s 15K Skate
- 10:30 a.m. Men’s Slalom - 1st run
- 1:30 p.m. Women’s Slalom - 2nd run
- 2:30 p.m. Slalom - 2nd run

Nordic Events (at Dartmouth Skiway)
- 1:30 p.m. Women’s Ski Jumps – 1st run

February 10, 2007

Alpine Events (at Dartmouth Skiway)
- 9:30 a.m. Men’s Slalom - 1st run
- 10:30 a.m. Women’s Giant Slalom - 1st run
- 1:30 p.m. Women’s Slalom - 2nd run
- 2:30 p.m. Slalom - 2nd run

Nordic Events (at Dartmouth Skiway)
- 10:00 a.m. Men’s 10K Classic
- 11:00 a.m. Women’s 10K Classic

Notes to Neighbors

The College will also feature several exhibits on campus in February:

- Exhibitions at the Hood Museum of Art:
  - From Discovery to Dartmouth: The Asatru Runes at the Hood Museum of Art, 1856-2006
  - El Anatsui: GAWU (sold out)
  - Thin Ice: Climate Change and the Inuit Sense of Weather

All museum exhibitions and events are free and open to the public unless otherwise noted. Additional information is available on the museum’s website. For more information, visit www.dartmouth.edu/~martmuseum.

Hopstops: Join in for Fun – and for Learning

The Hopstoppers will continue through May. For more information on Hopstops, please go to http://hop.dartmouth.edu.

Notes for more information, visit www.dartmouth.edu/carnival
Dartmouth Medical School connects to neighbors through public service and education programs that address pressing medical issues and concerns. Such initiatives as a student-developed free clinic, community medical school and emergency readiness center are integral to our commitment as citizens to benefit the health of the community we serve.

Most first- and second-year medical students volunteer locally, often tackling unmet health needs, medical inequities or unhealthy behaviors. They work primarily through the student-run Community Service Committee (founded in 1911) or the New Hampshire/Vermont Albert Schweitzer Fellowship (since 1969), partnering with area institutions and agencies or initiating new projects.

A shining example is the Mascoma Valley Free Health Clinic that our medical students launched in 2003 to improve health care access for the medically underserved population in the Canaan, N.H. region. The clinic, a satellite of the White River Junction, VT, Good Neighbor Clinic, received a 2006 Association of American Medical Colleges “Caring for Community” grant for student community projects and, recently, a Dartmouth College 2007 Social Justice Award.

Since 1998 we’ve shared the excitement of medicine with the public through Dartmouth Community Medical School (DCMS). Medical school faculty and guests teach community courses that help people keep pace with the stunning biomedical advances and provocative health issues that affect their lives and, sometimes, raise unsettling questions. This spring, DCMS focuses on the vitality and frailty of aging, with sessions opening locally in April (see http://www.dartmouth.edu/dcms).

Vigilance begins at home and we help lead community readiness for medical disaster care through the New England Center for Emergency Preparedness. The organization, which is headquartered in Lebanon, New Hampshire, is connected with the Mascoma Valley Free Health Clinic and centers to encourage increased participation with CATV.

For years Michael Beahan, Jones Media Center director, represented the College on the CATV board of directors. Following Beahan in 2005, Community Relations Director Sandra Hoehn took the helm.data entered by P.O. from Dartmouth Medical School